Duty activity

➤ Time commitment

You must stand at least 16 hours of duty per month to stay in good standing while in a training status.

Once you have advanced out of training status, you must stand at least 12 hours of duty per month to avoid reverting to a training status, unless you can demonstrate (to the satisfaction of the Chief) that you are maintaining your proficiency in some other capacity.

➤ Pay and points

During the training period, members receive standard credit for standing duty:

- Paid personnel are considered to be on the clock.
- Volunteer personnel earn points (at the rates indicated in the SOPs) that may later be redeemed for uniform parts and possibly other items.

➤ Shift selection

It is preferred (but not required) that volunteer personnel eventually pick regularly-recurring shifts. For example:

- Every Tuesday night
- Every other Friday day
- The second and fourth Wednesday nights each month
- The last Saturday of the month for 24 hours

These are only examples. SAES is actually extremely flexible in this respect. The benefit to standing duty on a regularly recurring schedule is that SAES will reserve a slot for you at your regular time. If you take advantage of this arrangement, please use the “call-off” procedure (see SOPs) when you are unable to make your regular duty.

➤ Performance evaluations

While in a training status, have senior members complete the following:

- A BLS Evaluation Form for each call
- A Driver Evaluation Form for each time behind-the-wheel.

Submit evaluation forms to the Training Supervisor. You will not be released to function on your own without supportive evaluation forms on file.

➤ Driving privileges

Do not drive any SAES unit by yourself until released from training status.

Ultimate goal

The ultimate goal of the SAES recruitment process is to release you from training status so that you can function with a greater degree of autonomy. For volunteer members, this includes allowing you to act in the place of similarly qualified paid members on any or all calls while you are on duty.
